Welcome Back

School reopened on Monday after the half term break with a 'spooktacular' Halloween Day. The children and staff had some 'fangtastic' costumes and a bewitching experience for all. Please check out our school Facebook page @StanshallSch to see the photographs of the children and staff in costume.

Well Done

Well done to all our pupils, past and present, who took part in the Holy Trinity Youth Theatre Workshop production of Chitty Chitty Bang Bang Jr. The children have worked so hard in rehearsals and during the show week and it showed. Well done to everyone involved and thank you to Frank and Father Ian for inviting Stansfield Hall to be a part of it.

Poppies Homework

Remembrance Day takes place next week and we asked the children to make or draw a poppy over half term. We would like to display these in school. Let your imagination run wild with your interpretation of Remembrance Poppies.

If you have not yet done so please bring the finished art work / model in on Monday.

Poppies will be being sold in school next week.

Littleborough Lantern Parade

Thank you to the children who attended the lantern parade, or were able to come down and watch, at the start of the half term holidays. The lanterns looked amazing and joining in with the other schools in Littleborough really made a great experience for all involved and those who came to watch.

Staffing Update

Miss Hare had her baby at the end of the holidays and is now on maternity leave, mother and daughter (Robin) are doing well. Congratulations. We hope they can come and visit us in school one day before Christmas. Mrs Belfield has taken on the role of Acting Deputy Headteacher (0.5) and will be working with Mr Walthall closely this half term. Mr Claxton will be teaching in Sycamore Class on a Thursday and Friday when Mrs Belfield is out of class completing some of her leadership duties.
